TELEPHONE No. 333.

Mr. Augustin Daly's elaborate pictorial presentation of Shakespeare's fanciful comedy, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," which has been memorable among Mr. Daly's noted artistic spectacular productions, will be the Christmas afternoon and night attraction at the Hyperion. It was revived in New York last season with flattering suc cess and created a furore in London this summer when it was presented a Daly's London theater. Scenically, this play is a series of beautiful pictures in which all of Mr. Daly's marvelous re sources of delicate and picturesque of ects are employed, the electrical feat ares and fairy revels being beautiful n the extreme. The cast is a fine one Charles H. Hopper will appear on Friday and Saturday nights in "Chim mle Fadden," a dramatization of Ed ward M. Townsend's book of that title There will be a matinee on Saturday.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE. This week the Walte Comedy company, premium band and orchestra will be the attraction, presenting an attractive repertoire of comedies and dramas. There are thirty-five people in the company, which includes the acting com pany, orchestra and specialty artists Being holiday week, a matinee will be given every afternoon, commencing on Tuesday. A special feature at to-mor row's matinee will be the holding of a reception on the stage and the present ation to every child in the audience of a handsome doll or musical top. The Elmore sisters, assisted by the Gleesons, juvenile members of the organization, will be the receiving hosts on this ecasion and will distribute the presents to their little friends in front. These souvenir Christmas gifts are now on exhibition in Malley, Neely & Co.'s windows. The opening play to be presented by the full strength of the company to night will be "The Black Flag."

Mr. Filson is himself a prominent society mar in New York, being the proprietor of the Beechwood farm in Westchester county and a member of a number of New York city clubs. For some years he and Miss Errol have been playing leading roles in stock companies, and only recently came into the vaudeville ranks. They have made a big sensation, playing in Proctor's Pleasure Palace for a full month beyond their engagement. They are very sure to make a big hit at the Wonderland this week In the supporting company is Stuart, the male Patti, who has been in Mexico and California for the past eight months and who will shortly sail for Europe. Others on the bill are the Brothers Diantas, Devoye and Archer, the Harbecks, George Evans, Miss Lydia Peirce, Mr. Lynch and Miss Jewell, and McCloud and Melville. Extra shows will be given on Christmas day.
